RE: SDS

Dear Mr. Van den Boom:

Enclosed please find the Safety Data Sheet (SDS) for linerboard purchased from Georgia-Pacific Containerboard LLC, (GP). This SDS has either been revised since you last received product(s), or are for product(s) you have purchased for the first time.

This product is not hazardous in the form in which it is shipped by Georgia-Pacific but may become hazardous by downstream activities such as cutting, slitting, scarfing, hammer milling or otherwise working with this product that generate large amount of dust. As stated in 29 CFR 1910.1200(b)(6)(v), OSHA's Hazard Communication Standard does not apply to articles that do not release or otherwise result in exposure to a hazardous chemical posing a physical hazard or health risk to the employees, under normal conditions of use.

This SDS provides important health and safety information. We suggest that you review this document prior to handling the product. For this document to be an effective means of hazard communication, it must be made available to all those who handle and are responsible for operations involving this product. Risk associated with the hazards identified in the SDS may be reduced or avoided if employees and customers are informed, remain alert to their possible occurrence, and adhere to safe work practices. An exposure evaluation/assessment is recommended to ensure that methods used in the handling, storage, disposal, and reporting of this product will be adequate and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Information contained herein should not be used for specification purposes.

This SDS has been prepared in accordance with the OSHA 2012 Hazcom guidelines for Safety Data Sheet preparation and supersedes all prior versions. Also, please note that for this product the label is being transmitted with the safety data sheet. Pursuant to OSHA's "one-time labeling" rule, 29 CFR 1910.1200(f)(4), subsequent shipments of this product will not be accompanied by a label unless the information on the label changes.

Sincerely,
